

THEATRE ARTS CAMP 2020

Adult Theatre Arts Week

August 4 to 7, 2020

Experiment and explore Shakespeare's plays by immersing yourself practically into his world. Discover character and conflict, voice and volume, and movement and motive. Each day will focus on a different dramatic technique and element of classical theatre. Through guided exercises and scene study, participants will learn and rehearse selected scenes from some of Shakespeare's classics. No experience necessary, just a willingness to jump in and have fun!

DETAILS

The program takes place in the Stratford Normal School (270 Water St.) on the corner of Queen and Water in Stratford and runs from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. each day. Coffee and lunch are included each day.

Includes a ticket to the 2pm matinee of Hamlet on Tuesday, August 4th.

INSTRUCTION

All of our programs are taught by theatre professionals with teaching experience who create dynamic programming for all ages.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Are meals included?

Coffee and lunch are included each day. Participants are responsible for all other meals.

Are accommodations included?

No, participants are responsible for their own accommodations.

Do you have to have theatre experience to participate?

None of our camps require previous experience or an audition for acceptance. All of our camps are interest-based; they are for anyone who is interested in learning and open to exploring the creative process with a community of peers.

What if a participant needs particular supports or modifications in order to participate?

Let us know what you need, and we will work with you to ensure you have a great experience. All students are welcome here.
